

Arnold Schwarzenegger
Governor

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
Governor's Office of Planning and Research

Jan Boel
Acting Director

Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger appointed Jan Boel as Acting Director of the Governor's Office of Planning and Research in November 2003.

During the years prior to her appointment, Jan worked for AT&T, culminating with a 4-year appointment as the Vice President of Federal Government Affairs in Washington, D.C. Having demonstrated success in achieving major objectives in a dynamic and ever changing environment, she is recognized as a creative, decisive leader with the ability to motivate teams and influence individuals to meet strategic goals.

In addition, Jan served several years as an appointed representative of Governor Pete Wilson's on the Board of the California Institute. After having served as Vice-Chair, she was also honored to be elected by her fellow Board members to the position of Chair.

A graduate of Stanford University, Jan Boel earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in history and political science.